Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozon, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. Uncle Jake Ziegler, of the Butler Herald, has not drank intoxicating liquor for a quarter of a century. He derives his nickname of uncle from an incident at a funeral, when the bereaved mother asked him if he was ever a father. He replied: "Never, madame; but I expect to be an uncle before another sun rises."

He is so popular at home that during the war a pious old farmer, who daily prayed for the preservation of the Union, and also that the Lord would especially visit His displeasure upon the Democrats and bring confasion among them, expressed his wishes thus:

"All of them, Lord, except Uncle Jake Ziegler, for everybody knows he is all right."
